AND ANSWERS

WHAT is the percentage of workers in the United States who are unorganized? H. E.

A. The American Federation of Labor mays there are about 4,000,000 organized workers in this country. The 1818 country showed that there were about 17,000,000 persons unguged in guinful occupation. This sumber unfoubtedly has grown. On the basis of these figures there would be 24,000,000 workers in the United States. This means that 11 out of 12 are unorganized.
